CORAM : A.M.KHANWILKAR, J.

28th January 2005

P.C.:

1. This application is for recalling the condition in the order dated June 6, 2002, requiring the Applicant to report to the concerned police station once in a month until further orders. It is seen from the record that the Applicant has complied with that direction so far. It is also seen that charge sheet has already been filed. As the Applicant has permanent place of abode and has also offered bail bond and surety as required, the presence of the Applicant can always be secured at the trial. Moreover, as such condition is not applicable to the main accused, I find substance in the submission canvassed by the Applicant that the said condition be recalled in the fact situation of the present case. Accordingly, this application succeeds to the extent of recalling the condition requiring the Applicant to report to the investigating officer once in a month. Rest of the conditions to remain as it is. Application disposed of on the above terms.
